ARE YOU EARNING WHAT YOU DESERVE?

League City, TX (5/2/06) --

"A woman afraid of her power is like an eagle afraid of its wings. We were born to use power. It's who we are, why we're here, how we make our way in the world. When we claim our own power, we raise the stakes. Power insists that we become responsible adults, the primary authority in our lives, autonomous, accountable."

~Barbara Stanny

"The workshop was a turning point. I stopped thinking 'woe is me' and started taking my business more seriously. I upped my income $40,000. I take jobs I want and turn down work I don't. That was a big thing. And I'm having so much fun."

~Marilyn T.

Best-selling author, Barbara Stanny, will present the first stop in the national tour of her newly designed interactive workshop in Bay Area Houston. This elite one-day event designed to teach women to earn what they deserve has limited seating and will be held May 18 at the Lakewood Yacht Club.
